

Health cards are so last year.

So get with the program. The Food Handler Safety Training & Certification Program, that is.

If you are a food handler, you are now required to get a food handler safety training card, which is as easy as 1-2-3.

1) Take the online food safety training.

- Pay for the training ($20) at the time of registration.
- Print the Certificate of Completion.

2) Apply for your card in person at the health district.

- Pay for the card ($20) at the time of application.
- Bring two forms of valid identification, one of which must have a photo.
- Show your Certificate of Completion.

3) Smile pretty!

- Get your picture taken and pick up your card, which is good for 3 years.
