Passport to Immunizations & Health Fair, April 28 Health fair caps National Infant Immunization Week

LAS VEGAS – The Southern Nevada Health District reminds the community that immunizations will be available at the Passport to Immunizations and Health Fair, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m., Saturday, April 28 at the East Las Vegas Community Center, 250 N. Eastern Ave. (Stewart and Eastern) as part of National Infant Immunization Week (NIIW). This free Shots 4 Tots event will offer no cost childhood immunizations for children up to age 36 months, health screenings, family resources, and entertainment. Parents should bring their children’s immunization records. For more information about the clinic or immunization services, contact the Southern Nevada Health District’s immunization clinic, (702) 759-0850 or visit www.SNHD.info.

Health screenings for kids will include oral screening and dental varnish, vision screenings, developmental screenings, fingerprinting, and vaccine records check. Face painting, family resources, entertainment including DJ Babychino, cultural performances, photos with Star Wars characters, and giveaways for children will be available (while supplies last).

Immunization services are available at health district clinics in East Las Vegas and Henderson. Due to the closure of the main facility at 625 Shadow Lane, expanded immunization clinic hours are available at the East Las Vegas Public Health Center.
