Health District posts latest edition of ‘The Perspective’

LAS VEGAS - The most recent edition of “The Perspective,” the Southern Nevada Health District’s quarterly e-newsletter, is now available on the health district’s website, www.SNHD.info. Each issue provides a public health perspective on a particular topic. This edition covers water, water safety, and water-related health issues. To view the newsletter, visit <http://www.southernnevadahealthdistrict.org/newsletter/enews/1302-perspective.html>.

Read about two families impacted by the silent tragedy of drowning, get information about recreational water illnesses (RWIs), and find out why water is so important for your health – all in the current edition of “The Perspective.”

To subscribe to The Perspective, visit <http://www.southernnevadahealthdistrict.org/newsletter/?p=subscribe> and receive quarterly updates.
