

Be flu smart.

Protect your most valuable investment.

Infants less than 6 months old are not able to get vaccinated against the flu.

Their best defense against influenza is being surrounded by vaccinated parents, family members, caregivers and other household contacts.

For vaccine availability and clinic locations, go to www.SNHD.info.